

European Commission

Digital Public Administration Infographic 2020 Spain

Political Communications

The Secretariat-General for Digital Administration (SGAD) will develop a new strategic plan in the field of digital government and ICT, for the period 2021 to 2024. It will be written according to the Agenda 2030 as well as European policies, such as Digital Europe Programme 2021-2027.

Governance

The responsibility for Spain's digital transformation processes lie with the new Ministry of Economic Affairs and Digital Transformation. While the Secretariat-General for Digital Administration is the main body responsible for interoperability activities.

Legislation

A new Interoperability guideline has been approved by the Council of Ministers in October 2019. The use of the Common Metadata Scheme (eEMC) is now recommended to all Public Administrations.

Infrastructure

The National Cryptological Centre published the CCN-STIC 883 Guide for the Implementation of the National Security Framework (ENS) for Local Entities, which includes the appropriate measures to adopt within an organisation to ensure the management of information security.

Digital Public Administration indicators

Percentage of individuals using the internet for

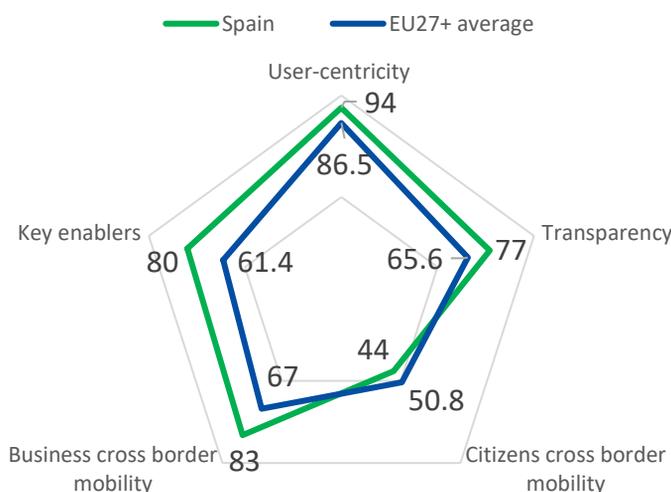

* This is the trend evolution compared data from Eurostat in 2018.

Source: Eurostat 2019

eGovernment indicators

eGovernment performance across policy priorities

Source: eGovernment Benchmark report 2020

State-of-Play of Interoperability

Source: European Interoperability Framework Monitoring Mechanism 2019